

Duck Project

Bibliography

January 17, 2007* Town Board Ponders Historic Preservation

The AIA has pledged a grant of $10,000 toward a proposed feasibility study aimed toward considering conservation and preservation options of the Black Duck Lodge, as well as historic buildings and property located on Suffolk County parkland in Flanders, adjacent to the Peconic Bay – and directly across State Route 24 from the renowned Big Duck. The parcel, which stretches up Red Creek Road, can be reached by car, bike and water and is fully accessible to the public

<http://www.indyeastend.com/1editorialbody.lasso?-token.folder=2007-01-17&-token.story=66324.113117&-token.subpub=>

January 18, 2007 Southampton Press Lodge Restoration Eyed page 4A

February 2, 2007

Hamptons environmentalist Eva Growney has received an AIA grant for the restoration of the Black Duck Lodge in Flanders

http://www.danspapers.com/issue43_2007/2.html

March 19, 2007* Architect and Environmentalist Extraordinaire *R. B. Stuart

Eva Growney studied design and architecture in Rhode Island, New York, and Rome. She's had architectural exhibitions at Chuck Scarborough's home, the Montauk Observatory and the French Culinary Institute. She's the Regional Director of the Peconic Chapter of The American Institute of Architects [AIA] and a Preservation Commissioner for the New York State Council for the Arts and Preservation Commission. But that's not all...

<http://www.hamptonsview.com/detail.ihtml?id=1412&apid=3002&sid=27&cid=122&hmm=0&iv=0>

March 30, 2007* AIA Peconic Architect Takes "Duck Project" Under Her Wing http://www.aia.org/aiarchitect/thisweek07/0330/0330p_duck.cfm